CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY.

Instituted by the Huguenots, 1685.

President.—Sir G. WILLIAMS.

Vice-Presidents.—The Right Honble. The EARL OF ABERDEEN, K.T.; and SIDNEY BUXTON, Esq., M.P.

Treasurer.—F. A. BEVAN, Esq.

THIS, the oldest of all the evangelistic societies in London, is largely engaged in taking the Gospel to two classes, viz., those who cannot, and those who will not, attend ordinary places of worship. The former are met with in workhouses, infirmaries, and such-like places: the latter in the open air, common lodging-houses, &c., besides in rooms and mission halls, where every sort of religious, social, and benevolent effort is in daily operation, by 450 volunteer workers, including lady helpers, who visit twenty-three workhouses and infirmaries and casual wards, with twelve thousand or more inmates.

During the winter an earnest and most successful effort has been made to reach the submerged tenth. Many have been secured work, and assisted in various ways. To sustain this, the free meals given all the year, and the general relief given to the very poor, Funds are urgently needed.

SUBSCRIPTIONS and DONATIONS will be most gratefully received by the Treasurer, F. A. BEVAN, Esq., at the Bank; by the Secretary, Mr. JAMES ATKINSON, 61, Rectory Road, Stoke Newington, N.; or by the Bankers, Messrs. BARCLAY & Co., 54, Lombard Street, E.C.

RESCUE SOCIETY.

Estd. 1853.

SEVEN HOMES.

The Committee appeal to the Benevolent Public on behalf of

Forsaken and Suffering Women and Girls,

FOR THE

GREATLY NEEDED SUPPORT

to enable the continuance and extension of their long established

PREVENTIVE AND RESCUE WORK.

The 50th Annual Report (free on application) tells of 18,429 girls and young women having been sheltered, fed, clothed and trained for several months, 9,112 of whom have been placed in service since the Society was formed, and a great number of the remainder being otherwise satisfactorily provided for. Seven Homes are now maintained, providing for rescue and preventive, maternity and medical cases. Three of these homes are for unfallen, friendless or endangered girls under 18 years of age.

WILL NOT THE READER KINDLY HELP?

Funds are urgently needed, and may be sent to the Bankers, BARCLAY & Co., Ltd., Lombard St., E.C., or to the Secretary, Mr. C. STUART THORPE, 79, Finsbury Pavement, E.C.

THE Hospital contains 318 Beds, and in 1903 received 1,721 In-patients; 12,447 Out-patients were also treated.
